Shell corrects fourth quarter and full year 2014 (FIFO) results, CCS earnings unchanged.

The Hague, 30 January 2015. Royal Dutch Shell plc announced its unaudited results for the fourth quarter and full year 2014 on 29 January 2015. Subsequent to making that announcement, a stock valuation error in its Downstream operations was discovered. The value of inventories in the condensed consolidated balance sheet, reported as $19,981 million, should be corrected to $19,701 million.

The fourth quarter and full year 2014 results of Royal Dutch Shell plc have been revised to take account of this stock valuation error. The impact is shown below.

Royal Dutch Shell's fourth quarter and full year 2014 earnings, on a current cost of supplies (CCS) basis are unchanged. These earnings were $4.2 billion and $19.0 billion respectively.

Fourth quarter and full year 2014 CCS earnings excluding identified items are unchanged. These earnings were $3.3 billion and $22.6 billion respectively.

The CCS adjustment for Downstream increased from $3,390 million to $3,568 million in the fourth quarter 2014 and from $3,989 million to $4,167 million for the full year 2014.

As a consequence, fourth quarter 2014 Income attributable to Royal Dutch Shell plc shareholders reduced from $773 million to $595 million. Full year 2014 Income attributable to Royal Dutch Shell plc shareholders reduced from $15,052 million to $14,874 million.

The impact on end 2014 return on average capital employed on a reported income basis (7.1%) and gearing (12.2%) is immaterial.

Fourth quarter and full year 2014 Basic CCS earnings per share and per ADS are unchanged.

Basic earnings per share and diluted earnings per share both reduced from $0.12 per share to $0.09 per share in the fourth quarter 2014 and from $2.38 per share to $2.36 per share for the full year 2014.

Cautionary note

The companies in which Royal Dutch Shell plc directly and indirectly owns investments are separate entities. In this announcement "Shell", "Shell Group" and "Royal Dutch Shell" are sometimes used for convenience where references are made to Royal Dutch Shell plc and its subsidiaries in general. Likewise, the words "we", "us" and "our" are also used to refer to subsidiaries in general or to those who work for them. These expressions are also used where no useful purpose is served by identifying the particular company or companies. "Subsidiaries", "Shell subsidiaries" and "Shell companies" as used in this announcement refer to companies in which Shell either directly or indirectly has control, by having either a majority of the voting rights or the right to exercise a controlling influence. The companies in which Shell has significant influence but not control are referred to as "associated companies" or "associates" and companies in which Shell has joint control are referred to as "jointly controlled entities". In this announcement, associates and jointly controlled entities are also referred to as "equity-accounted investments". The term "Shell interest" is used for convenience to indicate the direct and/or indirect ownership interest held by Shell in a venture, partnership or company, after exclusion of all third-party interest.

This announcement contains forward looking statements concerning the financial condition, results of operations and businesses of Shell and the Shell Group. All statements other than statements of historical fact are, or may be deemed to be, forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are statements of future expectations that are based on management's current expectations and assumptions and involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results, performance or events to differ materially from those expressed or implied in these statements. Forward-looking statements include, among other things, statements concerning the potential exposure of Shell and the Shell Group to market risks and statements expressing management's expectations, beliefs, estimates, forecasts, projections and assumptions. These forward looking statements are identified by their use of terms and phrases such as "anticipate", "believe", "could", "estimate", "expect", "goals", "intend", "may", "objectives", "outlook", "plan", "probably", "project", "risks", "seek", "should", "target", "will" and similar terms and phrases. There are a number of factors that could affect the future operations of Shell and the Shell Group and could cause those results to differ materially from those expressed in the forward looking statements included in this announcement, including (without limitation): (a) price fluctuations in crude oil and natural gas; (b) changes in demand for Shell's products; (c) currency fluctuations; (d) drilling and production results; (e) reserves estimates; (f) loss of market share and industry competition; (g) environmental and physical risks; (h) risks associated with the identification of suitable potential acquisition properties and targets, and successful negotiation and completion of such transactions; (i) the risk of doing business in developing countries and countries subject to international sanctions; (j) legislative, fiscal and regulatory developments including regulatory measures addressing climate change; (k) economic and financial market conditions in various countries and regions; (l) political risks, including the risks of expropriation and renegotiation of the terms of contracts with governmental entities, delays or advancements in the approval of projects and delays in the reimbursement for shared costs; and (m) changes in trading conditions. All forward looking statements contained in this announcement are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements contained or referred to in this section. Readers should not place undue reliance on forward looking statements. Additional factors that may affect future results are contained in Shell's 20-F for the year ended 31 December 2013 (available at www.shell.com/investor and www.sec.gov). These factors also should be considered by the reader. Each forward looking statement speaks only as of the date of this announcement, 30 January 2015. Neither Shell nor any of its subsidiaries nor the Shell Group undertake any obligation to publicly update or revise any forward looking statement as a result of new information, future events or other information. In light of these risks, results could differ materially from those stated, implied or inferred from the forward looking statements contained in this announcement.
