THE FOLLOWING IS A LETTER BEING SENT BY ROYAL DUTCH SHELL TO HOLDERS OF ROYAL DUTCH ORDINARY SHARES IN NEW YORK REGISTRY FORM, FROM JUNE 13, 2005.

Dear Royal Dutch Shareholder:

By now you should have received material, including the US Prospectus, dated May 19, 2005, (the "US Prospectus"), relating to the offer by Royal Dutch Shell plc ("Royal Dutch Shell") for your Royal Dutch ordinary shares in New York registry form. Defined terms used in this letter but not defined herein shall have meanings set forth in the US Prospectus.

Under the terms of the offer, for every Royal Dutch ordinary share held in New York registry form you tender in the offer, you will receive one Royal Dutch Shell Class A ADR (representing two Royal Dutch Shell Class A Shares) and for every Royal Dutch ordinary share held in bearer or Hague registry form you tender in the offer, you will receive two Royal Dutch Shell Class A ordinary shares. The offer is set to expire at 5:00 P.M., New York City Time on July 18, 2005 unless extended in accordance with US federal securities laws and Dutch tender offer regulations. Any such extension will be announced the next trading day on the Euronext Amsterdam stock Exchange after the previously scheduled expiration date by issuing a press release on, among others, the Dow Jones News Service. If you wish to participate, your custodian bank or broker must receive your instructions prior to the expiration date.

We urge you to carefully review the US Prospectus that has previously been sent to you including the section "RISK FACTORS" beginning on page 25, before deciding whether or not to accept the offer.

Among other considerations you should be aware that:

- Following completion of the Transaction and depending on the level of acceptance of the offer, Royal Dutch Shell intends to request that Royal Dutch seeks to de-list the Royal Dutch ordinary shares in New York registry form from the New York Stock Exchange. In addition, depending on the number of Royal Dutch ordinary shares in New York registry form acquired pursuant to the offer, the Royal Dutch ordinary shares in New York registry form may no longer be eligible for trading on the New York Stock Exchange. While the Royal Dutch ordinary shares could continue to be traded in the over-the-counter market and price quotations could be reported, there can be no assurance that such an over-the-counter market will develop.
- There are no appraisal rights with respect to shares not exchanged in the Transaction.
- In the event the Transaction is completed and Royal Dutch Shell is able to (and elects to) effectuate a squeeze-out, a Dutch court will determine the price to be paid for Royal Dutch ordinary shares not tendered in the offer.
- Royal Dutch ordinary shares in New York registry form may cease to be "Margin Securities" under the regulations of the Board of Governors of the U.S. Federal Reserve System, which status has the effect, among other things, of allowing U.S. brokers to extend credit on the collateral of such shares for purposes of buying, carrying and trading in securities.
- In addition to the squeeze-out procedures described above, Royal Dutch Shell would have the right following the Transaction to use any other legally permitted method to obtain 100% of the Royal Dutch ordinary shares, including engaging in one or more corporate restructuring transactions, or engaging in one or more transactions with minority holders of Royal Dutch ordinary shares.

The Royal Dutch supervisory board and the Royal Dutch board of management have unanimously reached the conclusion, on the basis of the considerations stated in the US Prospectus, that the Transaction between Royal Dutch, Shell Transport and Royal Dutch Shell is in the best interest of Royal Dutch, holders of Royal Dutch ordinary shares and Royal Dutch's other stakeholders. They are furthermore of the opinion that the offer is fair and reasonable and accordingly unanimously recommend its acceptance.

Please be aware that each member of the Royal Dutch supervisory board and the Royal Dutch board of management intends to tender his or her Royal Dutch ordinary shares in the offer. Royal Dutch and its subsidiaries intend to tender Royal Dutch ordinary shares it and its subsidiaries hold in the offer, other than shares designated for cancellation.

Sincerely,

Royal Dutch Shell plc
