Persons receiving this document (including custodians, nominees and trustees) or other documents related to the Transaction must not distribute or send them to any person or company in or from Japan.

The Royal Dutch Offer and the Scheme have not been notified to the Commissione Nazionale per le Società e la Borsa pursuant to applicable Italian securities laws and implementing regulations. Absent such notification, no public offer can be carried out in the Republic of Italy. Consequently, this document and other documents relating to the Transaction have not been, and cannot be, disclosed to any Italian residents or person or entity in the Republic of Italy and no other form of solicitation has been and can be, carried out in the Republic of Italy. This document and any document relating to the Transaction may not be mailed, distributed, disseminated or otherwise disclosed to any Italian residents or persons or entities in the Republic of Italy.

The Royal Dutch Offer is not to be made in New Zealand and may not be accepted by persons in New Zealand except as set out below. No prospectus has been registered with the New Zealand Registrar of Companies in accordance with the Securities Act 1978 (New Zealand) (the "New Zealand Securities Act"). Accordingly, neither the Royal Dutch Offer Document nor any other offering materials or advertisement in relation to the Royal Dutch Offer may be received by a person in New Zealand nor may Royal Dutch Shell Shares be offered directly or indirectly in New Zealand except in circumstances where there is no contravention of the New Zealand Securities Act (or any statutory modification or re-enactment of, or statutory substitution for, the New Zealand Securities Act).

The distribution of this document in jurisdictions other than The Netherlands, England or the US may be affected by the laws of the relevant jurisdiction. Interested persons should inform themselves about and observe all applicable requirements. Any failure to comply with these restrictions may constitute a violation of the securities laws of any such jurisdiction.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENTS CONCERNING FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

This document contains forward-looking statements that are subject to risk factors associated with the oil, gas, power, chemicals and renewables business as well as risks related to the Transaction. It is believed that the expectations reflected in these statements are reasonable, but they may be affected by a variety of variables which could cause actual results, trends or reserves replacement to differ materially, including, but not limited to: the costs related to the Transaction; the failure of the Transaction to achieve the expected benefits; changes in dividend policy; the development of the trading market in Royal Dutch Shell shares; tax treatment of dividends paid to shareholders; the accounting implications of the Transaction and other factors affecting the Royal Dutch/Shell Group's businesses generally, including, but not limited to, price fluctuations, actual demand, currency fluctuations, drilling and production results, reserve estimates, loss of market, industry competition, environmental risks, physical risks, risks associated with the identification of suitable potential acquisition properties and targets and successful negotiation and consummation of such transactions, the risk of doing business in developing countries, legislative, fiscal and regulatory developments including potential litigation and regulatory effects arising from recategorisation of reserves, economic and financial market conditions in various countries and regions, political risks, project delay or advancement, approvals and cost estimates. Each forward-looking statement speaks only as of the date of the particular statement. Please refer to the Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended 31 December 2004 (as amended) for a description of certain important factors, risks and uncertainties that may affect the Royal Dutch/Shell Group's businesses. None of Royal Dutch Shell, Royal Dutch, Shell Transport nor any member of the Royal Dutch/Shell Group undertakes any obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements as a result of new information, future events or other information. In light of these risks, the results of Royal Dutch Shell, Royal Dutch, Shell Transport, the Royal Dutch/Shell Group or the Royal Dutch Shell Group could differ materially from the forward-looking statements contained in this document.

THE FOLLOWING IS A FORM OF LETTER SENT TO HOLDERS OF NEW YORK REGISTRY SHARES ON JULY 20, 2005.

July 20, 2005

Dear Royal Dutch Shareholder:

On July 20, 2005 Royal Dutch Shell plc (“Royal Dutch Shell”) announced that all conditions to its public exchange offer (the “Royal Dutch Offer”) for all ordinary shares of Royal Dutch Petroleum Company (“Royal Dutch”), described in Royal Dutch Shell’s prospectus, dated May 19, 2005 (the “US Prospectus”), had been satisfied or waived and that the unification of Royal Dutch and The “Shell” Transport and Trading Company, p.l.c. under Royal Dutch Shell had become effective.

At the close of the acceptance period of the Royal Dutch Offer, Royal Dutch shareholders had tendered 1,897,638,608 ordinary shares in the share capital of Royal Dutch (“Royal Dutch Shares”), representing 91.69% of all issued and outstanding Royal Dutch Shares. Royal Dutch Shell exercised its right to waive down the minimum percentage of Royal Dutch Shares that must have been submitted for exchange from 95% to 75% (as announced on 8 July 2005).

To enable holders and beneficial owners of Royal Dutch Shares, who did not tender their Royal Dutch Shares in the Royal Dutch Offer, to exchange their Royal Dutch Shares for Royal Dutch Shell shares, Royal Dutch Shell today announced a subsequent offer period (the “Subsequent Offer Acceptance Period”) that will expire at 9:00am, New York City time on Tuesday, August 9th, 2005. During this period, holders of Royal Dutch Shares are permitted — subject to the terms of the Royal Dutch Offer documents — to tender any remaining Royal Dutch Shares. If you are still holding Royal Dutch Shares and wish to tender, the bank or broker holding shares on your behalf must receive your instructions sufficiently in advance of the expiration of the Subsequent Offer Acceptance Period to permit the bank or broker to tender on your behalf prior to such expiration.

The Subsequent Offer Acceptance Period is not an extension of the Royal Dutch Offer and it will not affect the timing of the acceptance and delivery of Royal Dutch Shares previously tendered and accepted for exchange in the Royal Dutch Offer. During the Subsequent Offer Acceptance Period there will be no withdrawal rights either for Royal Dutch Shares tendered for exchange in the Royal Dutch Offer or for those tendered during the Subsequent Offer Acceptance Period. Royal Dutch Shell will promptly accept for exchange any Royal Dutch Shares tendered during the Subsequent Offer Acceptance Period at the same exchange ratio as in the Royal Dutch Offer period (that is, two Royal Dutch Shell Class A ordinary shares for every Royal Dutch Share held in bearer or Hague registry form tendered and one Royal Dutch Shell Class A ADR (representing two Royal Dutch Shell Class A Shares) for every Royal Dutch Share held in New York registry form tendered).

We urge you to carefully review the US Prospectus that has previously been sent to you including the section “Risk Factors” beginning on page 25, before deciding whether or not to tender your Royal Dutch Shares in the Subsequent Offer Acceptance Period. Among other considerations you should be aware that:

- Royal Dutch Shell intends to request that Royal Dutch seeks to de-list the Royal Dutch Shares in New York registry form from the New York Stock Exchange as soon as reasonably practicable in accordance with applicable rules. In addition, depending on the number of Royal Dutch ordinary shares in New York registry form acquired by Royal Dutch Shell, the Royal Dutch Shares in New York registry form may no longer be eligible for trading on the New York Stock Exchange. While the Royal Dutch Shares could continue to be traded in the over-the-counter market and price quotations could be reported, there can be no assurance that such an over-the-counter market will develop.
- Royal Dutch Shares in New York registry form may cease to be “Margin Securities” under the regulations of the Board of Governors of the U.S. Federal Reserve System, which status has the effect, among other things, of allowing U.S. brokers to extend credit on the collateral of such shares for purposes of buying, carrying and trading in securities.
- Royal Dutch Shell reserves the right to use any legally permitted method to obtain 100% of the Royal Dutch Shares. This could include a squeeze out procedure, engaging in one or more corporate restructuring transactions, such as a merger, liquidation, transfer of assets or conversion of Royal Dutch into another form or corporate entity, or changing the Royal Dutch articles of association to alter the corporate or capital structure in a manner beneficial to Royal Dutch Shell. Further, Royal Dutch Shell could engage in one or more transactions with minority holders of Royal Dutch Shares which may include public or private exchanges, tender offers or purchases for consideration consisting of Royal Dutch Shell Shares, other securities or cash.

Please ignore this letter if you have already taken action.

Sincerely,

Royal Dutch Shell plc

All investment is subject to risk. The value of the Royal Dutch Shell shares may go down as well as up. Past performance is no guarantee for future returns. Investors are advised to seek expert financial advice before making any decisions as regards the proposals, including the Royal Dutch Offer referred to in this letter.

Holders of ordinary shares of Royal Dutch are urged to carefully review the registration statement on Form F-4 (including the US Prospectus) and other documents relating to the Royal Dutch Offer that have been or will be filed with, or furnished to, the US Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) by Royal Dutch Shell and the related solicitation/recommendation statement on Schedule 14D-9 that has been filed with the SEC by Royal Dutch and, as the case may be, the offer document and the prospectus which have been filed with, or furnished to, Euronext Amsterdam N.V. and the Dutch Authority for the Financial Markets by Royal Dutch Shell, regarding the Royal Dutch Offer, because each of these documents will contain important information relating to the offer. A free copy of the documents filed with the SEC (once filed) and other documents made public or filed with, or furnished to, the SEC by Royal Dutch Shell, Royal Dutch and Shell Transport can be obtained at the SEC’s website at www.sec.gov.
